FORMED. FLUSH. MODERN.

MapeShape panels have a formed exterior face and offset edges for glazing into standard channels. Highly customizable and available up to 6" thick. The panels are designed to create a flush appearance with the wall surface and framing. Butt joint panels are also available to eliminate exterior mullions.

For more details, please visit mapes.com
FEATURES
• Fits any standard glazing pocket
• Reduces framing mullions
• Minimizes shadow lines
• Offers flush surface (exterior and/or interior)
• Available up to 6” thick
• Can be made to extend beyond face of frame
• Structural glazing options available

APPLICATIONS
• Curtain Walls/Windows
• Thermal Retrofit
• Traditional or Structural Glazing

NOTE: Anodized aluminum subject to crazing along formed edges.